SUBJECT: NOVEMBER IS NATIONAL LUNG CANCER AWARENESS MONTH
Time: 30 seconds

Lung cancer is the nation's leading cause of cancer-related death – killing more than breast, prostate and colon cancers combined. This year, approximately 160,000 men and women will die from the disease. Smoking is the major risk, but you can develop lung cancer even if you don't smoke.

November is National Lung Cancer Awareness Month. Learn about lung cancer risks, symptoms and treatment options. Find easy to understand information from the Radiological Society of North America at RadiologyInfo.org. That's Radiology Info dot O – R – G.
