

Chicago Welcomes RSNA Attendees

Through Chicago's "We're Glad You're Here®" program, Mayor Richard M. Daley and the Chicago Convention and Tourism Bureau (CCTB) plan a citywide welcome for attendees and exhibitors at the RSNA 94th Scientific Assembly and Annual Meeting. The welcome includes:

- Complimentary bottled water and hot beverages Monday and Tuesday from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the transportation gates (while supplies last).
- A searchable Calendar of Events highlighting special events and attractions taking place in Chicago during the meeting, located on www.meetinchicago.com/rsna.
- "We're Glad You're Here®" banners posted in approximately 250 locations including O'Hare International Airport and on streets including Michigan Avenue, Fort Dearborn Drive, Martin Luther King Drive, Columbus Drive, Ohio Street, North Water Street and Stetson Drive.
- Welcome Centers at O'Hare and Midway Airports providing information about the city and RSNA.
- Ambassador Meet and Greet program at Terminals 1 and 3 at O'Hare airport to direct attendees to Welcome Centers.
- Welcome signs displayed throughout O'Hare and Midway airports, on shuttle buses and at retail outlets, restaurants, cultural attractions and hotels.
- Restaurant reservations service at the RSNA Help Centers at McCormick Place.
